

Guest of the Journal

Sabino de Juan López

Sabino de Juan López is a Doctor of Philosophy from the UNED, licensed in Philosophy and Sciences of Education by the University Complutense de Madrid, and licensed in Theology by the Universidad Pontificia, Salamanca. Since 1980, he has been Professor of the CES Don Bosco (University Center of Education Sciences, Madrid), assigned to the Universidad Complutense). He is a lecturer in degrees for Social Education, Primary and Childhood studies. His educational activity and of investigation is developed in subjects related to education, particularly in the area of philosophy and sociology: he is member of IUS Education Group.